

our youth to study and examine our past and to learn from it. At the state, the first and the second place winners in group and individual divisions advance to compete in the national contest, which this year will be held in College Park, Maryland. St. Isidore's has been very successful in this program over the past decade and this is the eighth consecutive year, and the ninth year since 1981 that the school has qualified students for the national competition. This year sixteen students from St. Isidore's qualified for the national contest, and one was chosen as an alternative. The presentations range from a skit about Mother Jones' effort to create better working conditions, to a show slide on the life of Standing Bear, to a visual display of women's suffrage movements of 1800s. I feel that the students along with their teacher, Mary Lou Green, and the school deserve recognition for their outstanding level of achievement in this valuable education program, and these youngsters have been literally working around the clock selling candy bars and car wash and doing all sorts of things to earn money to go to this history contest, and at this time are working hard to get a tour of the White House. It doesn't seem to successful at the present, and I would just ask the body to adopt the resolution.

PRESIDENT MOUL: Thank you, Senator Robak. Does anyone wish to speak to this resolution? Seeing none, we will now vote on LR 192. All those in favor please vote aye, opposed nay. Have you all voted on LR 192? Please record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 18 ayes, 0 nays, Madam President, on adoption of LR 192.

PRESIDENT MOUL: LR 192 is adopted. LR 193.

CLERK: LR 193 offered by Senator Robak would like the Legislature to congratulate Jason Daniels, history student at Monroe Elementary-High School for qualifying to participate in the National History Contest.

PRESIDENT MOUL: Senator Robak.

SENATOR ROBAK: Thank you, Madam Speaker. This is another similar resolution, it would honor Jason Daniels, a fifth-grade history student at Monroe Elementary School, and Monroe is a little school outside of Columbus, Nebraska, about nine miles outside of Columbus. He also qualified for the National History Contest. Jason's qualifying entry was a video presentation
